

I Believe In You (You Believe In Me)

Johnnie Taylor

I feel sorry, I feel sorry
I feel sorry, I feel sorry

I feel for sorry
For any man out there
When he can't look around
And say this is my woman
My woman alone

I feel sorry, yeah
For any woman out there
Who can't say I got somebody
That I can call my very own

I feel sorry, I feel sorry
I feel sorry, I feel sorry

One thing I can say about
The people of the world today
They see you with a good thing
They want to take it away

But I believe in you
You believe in me too, yeah
Even your best friend will come
Around making sly remarks
Trying to put you down
I believe in you
You believe in me too

Listen, honey
People talking
Trying to pull us apart
Sticking pins and needles
In both of our hearts
I love you no matter
Don't care about
The stormy weather

I heard your mother say

Loving me didn't make no sense
But when she put me down
You stood up in my defense

I believe in you
Anytime you against
Your own mother
It makes me know
You believe in me, yeah
Here's another thing

We had our hard times
And almost didn't make it
We always worked it
Never tried to fake it

But I believe in you
Here's anything about it

People talking
Always ticking pins and
Needles in both of our hearts
Our love together

I believe in you

I believe
That's why every time
We get a chance
I tell you, honey
How much I love you
Love you, love you
Love you, love you

And most of all
How much I trust you
The reason why I trust you, baby
Is because of one thing
I can lean on you, yeah, baby
And you can lean on me too

One more time I'm gonna say

I believe in you
Honey, please
Let me believe in you
I know a lot of folk out there
Wish they had somebody
They could believe in

I believe, I believe in you

You believe in me
I believe in you
And you've shown me enough
To know you believe in me too
