I Feel

The Cruel Sea

Feel the touch of my hand
See the light in my eye
You know why I feelLike a foolish young boy
Like some discarded toy
Like a wounded animal
And you know whyI feel like it's need more than desire
I feel all my senses are on fire
I feel, I feel and you know whyFeel the dirt on my hands
Feel the beat of my heart
Feel and watch the fire startFeel the pain that I know
Taste the blood that I shed
Come and lay on my bedSee the lies in my eyes
Feel the heat in my hands
Feel and I know that
You will understand whyI feel like nobody know or cares how
I feel like I'm gonna be kind of sick now
I feelI feel and you know why
Feel the back of my hand
Feel the beat of my heart
Feel and watch the fire startFeel the pain that I know
Taste the blood that I shed
Come and lay on my bed
