Chances

Step Rockets

yeah
yeah
find a doctor for your body now, yeah we can make it through the night put your wicked self together somehow, yeah we can stop the fight we can stop tonight break it all just to make things right, yeahwe can break it off this time you can make it out this time oh, but you won't (yeah, and I want you to)make it through the nights if we stick together
no ones got the time to start making it betterwell, if this life is a curse and I got diamonds on my mind how could it be worse than living in this life step inside the light we can find it all tonightwe can break it all this time you can break it off this time oh, but you won't(yeah, and I want you to)(make it through the night chased to the light, yeah) make it through the nights
know there's always time to start changing the weather
