

Coronet Blue

Lenny Welch

Coronet Blue
Coronet Blue
Deep down inside my brain
I keep hearing that wild refrain

Coronet Blue
No other clue
I know that this must be
The thing that can set me free

For I was born just yesterday
Lonely as a misty river
Always â€™ moving like a river
If I linger, I will die

And so I go my lonely way
Every journey filled with danger
Even to myself a stranger
Wondering who am I.

Coronet Blue
Coronet Blue
Deep down inside my brain
I keep hearing that wild refrain

Coronet Blue
No other clue
I know that this must be
The thing that can set me free

For I was born just yesterday
Lonely as a misty river
Always â€™ moving like a river
If I linger, I will die

And so I go my lonely way
Every journey filled with danger
Even to myself a stranger
Wondering who am I.
