

Too Late

These Reigning Days

And so it is.
Apparent from the start
I should have kissed you
And buried your broken heart And so it is
The fairy tale begins
Im not like you. I should have buried your lies and sins Its too late for a wedding
And its a long way home
Its a long way home
Im still dreading the tears in her eyes
The tears in her eyes. Set sail for the sunrise and Ill meet her again
Ill be with her again
Itll do for the meantime.
Itll do for the meantime. And so it is
The bride and groom set sail
Man overboard, an ending to his tail. Its too late for a wedding
And its a long way home
Its a long way home
Im still dreading the tears in her eyes
The tears in her eyes. Set sail for the sunrise and Ill meet her again
Ill be with her again
Itll do for the meantime.
Itll do for the meantime.
