Legion

Junkie XL

Connecting channel to channel, communications are rebel
That we're looking for harmony like the bass and the treble
Divide it like pebble hallucinating battles
But we can't saddle separate the hassling tattleHope can strangle, mangled to confused and Believe with the strength of Rosicrucians
Searching for human touch trust will be loving such Musical solution, simple revolution beats and pulsesOur frek will reminisce quest for better pet
No, it sounds really bad wagoness
We get, the sweat my only methaphoreman
Let this cats only live for heavier sexChemical surfin' and ol' daddy seemed killed
Yesterday struggle success will predict a meatness
The violent we stand, united we fall
In desperate goals don't you know, don't you know?We are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere
We are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere
We are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere
LegionFrom the blasting gunshots and have-nots
Escapism, inefficacious they'll be with you no wrong or track spots
So blasting yours, blasting ya away seek your better days
Now it's confusing, the matter stayShift shifting, shot lifting anything the top lifting
Benefit this is a part, could my drifting
Seek destiny it will find thee slow don't you know, don't you know?We are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere
We are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere
We are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere
LegionCrazy
Crazy
CrazyCrazy highs and your terrible lows
Crazy highs and your terrible lows
Crazy highs and your terrible lowsIt controls
It controls
It controlsWe are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere
We are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere

We are legion
Supported through the collectives out there, somewhere
LegionIt controls
It controls
It controls
