

To the Table

Zach Williams

Here the voice of love that's calling
There's a chair that waits for you
And a friend who understands everything you're going through
But you keep standing at a distance
In the shadow of your shame
But there's a light of hope that's shining
Won't you come and take your place? And bring it all to the table
It's nothing he ain't seen before
For all your sin, all your sorrow, and your sadness
There's Savior and he calls
Bring it all to the table He can see the weight you carry
The fears haunt your heart
Through the cross you've been forgiven
You accepted as you are So bring it all to the table
It's nothing he ain't seen before
For all your trials, all your worries, and your burden
There's Savior and he calls
Bring it all to the table Bring it all
You can bring it all Come on in take your place
There's no one who's turned away
All you sinners, all you saints
Come right in and find your grace
Come on in take your place
There's no one who's turned away
All you sinners, all you saints
Come right in and find your grace And bring it all to the table
It's nothing he ain't seen before
For all your sin, all your sorrow, and your sadness
There's savior and he calls
Bring it all to the table
