

Feel What I Feel

Gotthard

So much for love
You must've come from way above
Just for a smile and just for an inch
I'll run a mile, I'll run a mileSo much it seems Might only be just mirrors and steam
Might be the wine

But I've never known a love so ~~one~~Don't wanna wake up from this highSay that it's fate, say that it's real
Say I'm not dreaming and you feel what I feel
Don't say I'm sleeping, don't let it end
Don't wake me up, I'll never ~~one~~nd you again
I'll never ~~one~~nd you againSo much to say
Perfection in every single way
I'm taking the dive

Cause I've never felt just so aliveDon't wanna wake up from this highSay that it's fate, say that it's real
Say I'm not dreaming and you feel what I feel
Don't say I'm sleeping, don't let it end
Don't wake me up I'll never ~~one~~nd you again
I'll never ~~one~~nd you again, I'll never ~~one~~nd you again
I'll never ~~one~~nd you againSay that it's fate, say that it's real
Say I'm not dreaming and you feel what I feel
Don't say I'm sleeping, don't let it end
Don't wake me up I'll never ~~one~~nd you again
Say that it's real, say that it's real
Say that it's real, say that it's real
Do you feel what I feel? What I feel
What I feel, what I feel, what I feel
Do you feel what I feel? What I feel
