

After All

Todd Herzog

After all the things weâ€™ve been through together
Youâ€™d think I would know you by now
But I prove my ignorance time and again
More than one life should allow

But even through the darkness I feel you
Trying so hard not to fall
And I realize how deeply I need you
After all

Thereâ€™s a light that shines within you so brightly
A fire that burns in your eyes
And Iâ€™d wrap my arms around you forever
If only Iâ€™d keep it alive

â€˜Cause even through the darkness I see you
Trying so hard not to fall
And I realize how deeply I need you
After all

What have I learned from all this
So as not to make the same mistakes again
Not again
When will I earn forgiveness
And how can I continue till then Till then

â€˜Cause even through the darkness I feel you Trying so hard to believe
And I realize youâ€™re the only one for me
After all
