

Venetian Blue

Shawn Colvin

It still hasn't snowed in a lifetime
And I am still frozen in time
Where did you come from and how could you leave?
And why can't you be mine? Well, I'm caught in between a lifeline
And a love so deep I will drown
Let it pour like silver in this empty room
And wear this memory down So come to me soon and I'll hold you
We'll be eye to eye, skin to skin
And I'll stroke the fire of this cruel December
Until I see you again Then I'll lay you down in May
And I'll have my way with you
The water town is raining down
Pools of venetian blue
Let it pour like silver in this empty room
Pools of venetian blue
