

It's Coming Down

Cake

It's coming down
It's coming down
It's raining outside
You've nowhere to hide
She's asking you why you think it's funnyIt's coming down
It's coming down
She's leaving your house
She had to get out
She's mad and she'll take her mattress with herIt's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming downIt's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming downIt's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming downIt's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming downYou lie on the floor
She's slamming your door
She's gone and she's wearing your red sweaterIt's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming downIt's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming downIt's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming down
