Undying

Zoroaster

Lately, I?ve been thinking
That forever is just a lie
?Cause I?ve remembered all the pain I felt
When my only true love died
But last night I got the feeling
There was a spirit in the air
I lit a candle and I held my breath
I swear I saw you standing there
You spoke to me in whispers
And I melted at what I heard
There were echoes from the other side
In each and every word
Said, "Love is undying
True love never dies
We?ll meet up again
?Cause love has no end"
No, love is undying
I?m so glad I saw you
I shivered inside when you closed your eyes
But love is undying
And last night I dreamed a dream of you
Where you took me to the other side
You looked so happy, not a trace of tears
And I could not help but cry
You said that I wasn?t ready
To tell my world "Goodbye"
But you?d wait for me 'til the end of time
And forever is not a lie
But love is undying
True love never dies
We?ll meet up again
?Cause love has no end
No, love is undying
I?m so glad I saw you
I shivered inside when you said, "Goodbye"
But love is undying
Love is undying
Undying
Undying

Hell, love is undying
True love never dies
?Cause love has no end
No, love is undying
I?m so glad I saw you
I shivered inside when you said, "Goodbye"
But love is undying
Love is undying
There?s no denying
You?re heaven sent, you came and you went
But love is undying
Love is undying
Undying
