Just turn to 'em and say you are appreciated I appreciate your smile
(Thank you)
I know how much it take
To carry and birth a child
(Thank you) And the way you play dumb even
When we living real foul
(Ooh, thank ya)
And even as a single parent, momma
You still hold it down some how
(Thank you momma) Making ends meet somehow
(Thank you, momma)
I appreciate your strength
(Thank you) How you never bite your lip
