

Nothing Shatters Like a Heart

Moto Boy

when the last light is over us and the night is in your eyes there are things that only only your eyes can show me
    nothing shatters like a heart
nothing matters when we are apart
    we can only fall apart
    nothing shatters like a heart
    I pray it's you with every call I am nothing but a wind up doll I let it twist me in every way I'd do anything u say
    nothing shatters like a heart
nothing matters when we are apart
    we can only fall apart
    I can't just leave you without your smile what am I to do it's not as easy as you say you've changed my life in every way
    nothing shatters like a heart
nothing matters when we are apart
    we can only fall apart
    and it hits me like a dart was it over from the start baby when you fall apart, fall into my arms
