

Love Is in Your Eyes

Gerard Joling

Love is in your eyes and someone's gonna love you tonight now.
Love is in your eyes and someone's gonna hold you right now. We don't have to dance in silence
You don't have to be so blue.
I feel that you're out of balance.
But there's a life waiting for you. Love is in your eyes and someone's gonna love you tonight now.
Love is in your eyes and someone's gonna hold you right now. You're just going through the motions.
I know that it cuts like a knife.
But I'll second your motions.
We'll go for the bright sight of life.
