

Love Juju #1

Somi

You came and you cast your spell
I won't look, won't ask, won't tell
I won't deny this is magic I can hear your heart beat slow
Shekere and blindfolds
If I turned my eye it would be tragic They say it must be juju
You're using juju
They say it must be juju
You're using juju Dark chocolate, cowry shells
Plantain and mango smells
Please don't wake me if I'm dreaming
Black skin, palm wine, long hair
This feels like truth or dare
I swear my heart feels like it's screaming
They say it must be juju
You're using juju
They say it must be juju
You're using juju
