Down (LP Version)

Leslie Phillips

Down, I hit the dirt when I see who you really are Down, all my strength leaves me like a falling starCut to the heart, I am opened up like a wound
Shattered convictions I thought were reflecting you
Cut to the heart, I am opened up like a wound
Shattered convictions I thought were reflecting youDown, comes my religion like leaves on winter trees
Down, down, you come to me with your love
On hands and kneesCut to the heart, I am opened up like a wound
Shattered convictions I thought were reflecting you
Cut to the heart, I am opened up like a wound
Shattered convictions I thought were reflecting you
