Meet You There

Busted

I'm waiting for the perfect time to call you back
'Cause I remember saying
Don't wanna know the truth
Can't handle that
And I tried to, I tried to
Just forget you, just forget you
But I don't know how
If only I knew
It's written all over your face
It's such a painful thing to waste
Tell me now
Where do we go?
Now the future's not so clear
I can't believe we've ended here
Where's the world that doesn't care?
Maybe I could meet you there
Yeah
I'm sorry if I slagged you down
I meant no harm
But when I heard the stories
I said things I didn't mean
Should have stayed calm
But sadly, sadly
You got angry
And it breaks my heart
You're so mad at me
It's written all over your face
It's such a painful thing to waste
Tell me now
Where do we go?
Now the future's not so clear
I can't believe we've ended here
Where's the world that doesn't care?
Maybe I could meet you there
Maybe I could meet you there
Maybe I could meet you there
It's written all over your face
It's such a painful thing to waste
Tell me now

Where do we go?
Now the future's not so clear
I can't believe we've ended here
Where's the world that doesn't care?
Maybe I could meet you there
Maybe I could meet you there
Maybe I should meet you there
