Once In A Blue Moon

Edie Brickell

(Hinkel)Don't be afraid when you're drowning under a sky made of blue Don't be afraid 'cos that happens
once in a blue moon
And don't be surprised when you fail in changing your life for a new Don't you be scared 'cos that happens once in a blue moonSo don't be afraid when you're leaving something that you loved behind 'Cos sooner or later you're going to wipe the tears from your eyes And don't be sad when your conscience is telling you nothing but truth Don't be afraid 'cos that happens once in a blue moonDon't be afraid when you're waking up all alone in your room I'm sure it will happen only once in a blue moon
And don't be sad when I'm dying under your sky made of blueBut I'm so scared it will happen once in a day for me and you
