

Until The Morning Comes

Erica Magdaleno

My hands 'round your throat
If I kill you now, well they'll never know
 Wake me up if I'm sleeping
By the look in your eyes I know the time's nearly come
 Wake me up 'cause I'm dreaming
Well, they'll never believe what's been happening here
 But caught in my mind there's a way to get out
Wake me up 'cause I'm dreaming, well they'll never believe it
So hush now my babe please don't cry, everything's gonna be alright
 Hush now darling I can hear you're screaming
 Let me hold you until the morning comes
 So tell me this is what you want
You can whisper it soft or you can scream it out loud
 'Cause there's still time to change your mind
 But do it now before tomorrow comes
Wake me up 'cause I'm dreaming, well they'll never believe it
So hush now my babe please don't cry, everything's gonna be alright
 Hush now darling I can hear you're screaming
Let me hold you until the morning comes, until the morning comes
 The light is fading
 But the stars are dancing bright
My mind is racing like the clouds across the sky
 How did you make me go this far?
