

You Don't Have To Go

Christian Collins

She don't have to be alone
She don't have to be alone, no

She travels fast
Don't need bags
Wherever she goes (she's first)
She's first class
No ticket though
No boarding pass
Who are all these pictures of
Her reply was just
Oh, what's his name

Booking reservations so many faces
So many hotel rooms but yet no permanent place
Said home is where your heart is
But her name is in the wrong place

She don't like to be alone (been around and around and around is her name now ... been around and around)
She don't like to be alone (been around and around and around is her name You're famous)

/: If you don't have to go, go, go
Then why you tryna go, go, go
Leave your bags on the floor, floor, floor
Girl you're at home. :/

So where you going
No hesitation, no destination
Just late phone calls
So distant a lot of baggage
No packed bags no
Thinking oh no no no
Where did I go wrong?
Steering towards the wrong way

Record your message after the tone

/: And you don't have to be there all alone
I know you're crying girl come home:/

(You're famous)

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>