Kryptonite

Danny Fernandes

Feels like the weight of the world is on my shoulders
You know I love you, but I just need some time.
I know I said nothing will come between us,
But I just can't bear it to see you crying
I wanted to be your everything, baby
I wanted to be the one you call on to make it right
But tonight I can't be Superman!'Cause your tears are my kryptonite, oh, oh
This is killing me!
Your tears are my kryptonite, oh, oh
I can't take it anymore!
I don't wanna let you girl and just can't find
Cause I'm dying inside
Your tears are my kryptonite
And I just can't get wayI always thought that you be the one to save you
But I'm the one that you need save you fault
I can't breack this fault damn between us
I guess I'm not a man you thought I was
I wanted to be your everything, baby
I wanted to be the one you call on to make it right
But tonight I can't be Superman!'Cause your tears are my kryptonite, oh, oh
This is killing me!
Your tears are my kryptonite, oh, oh
I can't take it anymore!
I don't wanna let you girl and just can't find
Cause I'm dying inside
Your tears are my kryptonite
And I just can't get wayI'm trying do this salfe this stay
I don't wanna see you hurting anymore
Because you me this killing me mercy'Cause your tears are my kryptonite, oh, oh
