

Paddling Out

Miike Snow

The waves are warm, the sun is out
The sea is full of ancients
Take all the space between the grains of sand
And automate it[Chorus]
There's someone here who laughs too hard at everything
There's someone here who laughs too hard at everything
You say isn't it hard?
Paddling out, paddling out
You say isn't it hard?
Paddling out, paddling outThe ride to land the mating crowds
Are out here for the weekend
We had to take our close before
The sun was gone completely
I used to lie there thinking clouds
Deciding queens and rich word doubts
The lines I throw myself are thin
Are shower curtain thin[Chorus]
There's someone here who laughs too hard at everything
There's someone here who laughs too hard at everything
You say isn't it hard?
Paddling out, paddling out
You say isn't it hard?
Paddling out, paddling outYou say isn't it hard?
Paddling out, paddling out
You say isn't it hard?
Paddling out, paddling out
