Lolita

PAW

Hush child, or I'll close your pretty mouthLolita spread your pretty legs so daddy can see just were he wants to play
The sun shines through your fancy dress
Put your little body on display
And I didn't mean to hit you so hardI didn't mean to push you to far away
I didn't mean to hurt you so bad
I didn't mean to push you to far away
For you to come back homeLolita, stay, oh I can't hold anybody else
Lolita, go, I can't stand to see you play aroundEvery scar I leave on you
It reminds me of how it used to be
You're just a little play thing
How come you mean so much to meStay with me, runaway, stay with me, hide away
Stay with me, get away
Stay with me, go away
Say with me, run away
I want you to go, I want you to stayLolita, stay, I can't hold anybody else
Lolita, go, I can't stand to see you play around
I'm gonna tell you the way it's gonna be from now onYou're always going to be my little girlLolita, you, you can't stay, cause I won't keep you
And, baby, you, you can't go, cause I won't let you
Maybe I've asked for too much
Maybe I shouldn't careBut why the heaven would you wanna stay
And why the hell would I want you
Yeah, I really want you
And I tell you, it doesn't...No matter what you ask, I'm gonna let you down
I'm never, ever, ever gonna be forgiven
Just stay with me child
