

Honesty

Fink

Who was it telling me
Honestly
Honesty is all about the timing

Oh, my bad
There was I thinking that honesty
Was all about truth

Oh, woe is me
With your honesty
We've had conversations
About the past
It's taken long enough to see
Your true colours
You've got so many baby
You're like a fuckin rainbow
Just let me revel in your blue notes

Who was it sitting here
Yesterday
Saying that I'm leaving in a hurry
Oh, my bad
There was I sitting there watching you
Talking like I'm already gone
Oh, woe is me
With your honesty

We've had conversations
About the past
It's taken long enough to see
Your true colours
You've got so many baby
You're like a fucking rainbow
Just let me revel in your blue notes

Who was it telling me
Honestly
Honesty is all about the timing
Oh, my bad
There was I thinking that honesty

Was all about truth
Oh, woe is me
With your honesty
With your honesty
With your honesty
With your honesty
With your honesty
With your honesty
