

City of Orphans

The Classic Crime

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Jenny left from Idaho and made her home in Capitol Hill
In a 300 square foot studio above a coffee shop near the Broadway Grill
And every night she walks the block to trade in her time for cheap thrills
And everyone she meets is cool

But just out of reach and it kills
She used to spend her nights by firelight and singing to the stars

Now shes ours

Now shes ours
Kevin left from Denver where the air is thin and people are nice
And he traded it for sea level, for misty rain, what a bitter compromise
For now he felt like he belonged to those who understood him

But he sold his soul to fight right in and he watched his friends desert him

He used to spend his nights by candlelight and drinking wine to vinyl

Now hes ours

Now shes ours

Its a city of orphans
Who had nowhere to go
So they cashed in their dreams

Headed northwest to the sea

And they called it their home
But most dont belong here

Were all running away
And well drain you dry of all semblance of life

We dont give we just take, take, take

But this city has no Bible

Theres no meaning you can use

Were all desperately searching for truth

Were a city of orphans
Who had no place to go
So we cashed in our dreams

Filled our glasses with Beam

And our bodies with smoke
And we spend every weeknight

Trading pints at the Streamline

And we talk about truth

And we talk about love but we wake up to lies, lies, lies

Its a city of orphans
Where did our fathers go
We stumble around in the bad part of town at the end of our rope
But there are no answers

On the tables of oak
If God could just hear us

We think that Hes near

But He left long ago
Were a city of orphans

What do we do to ourselves?
We take all the good and the heaven around us and turn it to hell
We take all the good and the heaven around us and turn it to hell We take all the good and the heaven around us and turn it to hellJenny left from Idaho and made her home in Capitol Hill
