Spanish Heart

808 State

Time ain't doing what it used to do
And how your Spanish heart descendsIt's not real
And it ain't what I bargained for
In a deal
I know will never endI would stay up day and night
if I thought that it would make you listen
Just to make you both aware of this ever changing situationI would stay up day and night
I would stay up day and nightWhen you're gone
I'll never be the same again
It's so strange
I saw it in the sky
If I could hold
the future in my open hand
I would heal
Your aching Spanish heartI would stay up day and night
if I thought that it would make you listen
Just to make you both aware
of this ever changing situationI would stay up day and night
I would stay up day and nightI feel so good when I look at youSo good
When I look at youI feel so good
When I look at you
I refuse to believe
There was ever a question
I feel so good
When I look at youSo good
When I look at youI feel so good
When I look at you
I refuse to believe
There was ever a question
