Underneath a Beating Heart

Rosi Golan

Sheets falling and forming shapes, drowning to stay awake
Closing my eyes to make sure you're still here
Holding my every gaze, savor and keep them saved
In just a moment light of day will breakOh oh oo oh oh so oh oh oo oh oh so
Let's lay low let's lie right here
Underneath a beating heart everything will disappear
Let's low low let's lie here tonight
Underneath a beating heart everything will be alrightLet's let all the fading stars remind us of where we are
I know they may seem far away but this seems like the time to say
All that I need to sayOh oh oo oh oh so oh oh oo oh oh so
Let's lay low let's lie right here
Underneath a beating heart everything will disappear
Let's low low let's lie here tonight
Underneath a beating heart everything will be alright
