

Avalanche

FLETCHER

You always find the exit sign in a crowded room
Aah aah aah aah
Everyone wants their shot, but you're bulletproof
Aah aah aah aah
Don't let them feel you when your arms unfold
A fire's burning, but you cave as gone cold
And you know you can't stay here foreverSo, you're scared,
You don't think you're ready
We'll take it slow,
I'll walk with you on the edge
Paint the colors on top of the sunset
I can do this all for you!
So, give me one night, one minute
And I'll watch you fall like an Avalanche
Let your walls down, I swear you won't regret it
Hold on tight, baby, if you can
We'll be rolling fast, and crashing high
Hear the mountains grow to the beat of our heartsWe'll be falling like an Avalanche
We'll be falling like an AvalancheStaring at the waves, but you don't wanna drown again
Aah aah aah aah
Wish that you could feel the water come pouring in
Aah aah aah aah
The blood is rushing, but your power last
To find this beach, you feel so alive
I think that you can love me foreverSo, you're scared,
You don't think you're ready
We'll take it slow,
I'll walk with you on the edge
Paint the colors on top of the sunset
I can do this all for you!
So, give me one night, one minute
And I'll watch you fall like an Avalanche
Let your walls down, I swear you won't regret it
Hold on tight, baby, if you can
We'll be rolling fast, and crashing high
Hear the mountains grow to the beat of our heartsWe'll be falling like an Avalanche
We'll be falling like an Avalanche
Like an Avalanche
Like an AvalancheGo ahead and close your eyes,

The sound will pass us by, it's beautiful to fall apart
Oh, the storm is gonna break when we start
Go ahead and close your eyes,
Listen to the wind go silent,
We can let our hearts run free
Baby, you can have a life with me
Everyone wants their shot, but you're bulletproof So, you're scared,
You don't think you're ready
We'll take it slow,
I'll walk with you on the edge
Paint the colors on top of the sunset
I can do this all for you!
So, give me one night, one minute
And I'll watch you fall like an Avalanche
Let your walls down, I swear you won't regret it
Hold on tight, baby, if you can
We'll be rolling fast, and crashing high
Hear the mountains grow to the beat of our hearts We'll be falling like an Avalanche
We'll be falling like an Avalanche
We'll be falling
We'll be falling like an Avalanche
We'll be falling
We'll be falling like an Avalanche
