This Is the New Year

Ian Axel

Another year you made a promise another chance to turn it all around and do not say this for tomorrow embrace the past and you can live for now and I will give the world to you

Speak louder than the words before you and give the meaning no one else has found the role we play it is so important we are the voices of the underground

say everything you always wanted be not afraid of who you really are cause in the end we have each other and that is one thing worth living for

A million suns that shine upon me A million eyes you are the blue lets stare down the walls that divide us and build a statue strong enough for two it all gets back to you I will be for you cause I will give the world to you this is a new year a new begining

we made a promise you are the brightest
we are the voices
this is the new year
this is the new year
