Underneath My Skin

Timothy Bloom

Feet don't fell me now
Where the soul of my heart
Is running
Keep them planted on the ground
Taken by surprise
Couldn't see the warning signs
Put a mirror to my demise
And look into my eyes
Could I be a better man
The object of your perfection
Let me show you I am...Underneath my Skin
Lies a breathing heart
Like the world it trembles
Breaking down these wall
Underneath your skin
Lies a broken heart
I'll piece it back together
Mend the deepest partA Sleepless Resurrection
Hopeless in my mind
Cause time is moving slowly slowly
Night and day the same
All the streets are empty
Nothing stops the lonely
I'm trying to numb the painIf you could understand
I'm the shadow of you reflection
Let me show you who I amUnderneath my Skin
Lies a breathing heart
Like the world it trembles
Breaking down these wall
Underneath your skin
Lies a broken heart
I'll piece it back together
Mend the deepest partCause all we are
Like dying stars
We rise we fall
Then we come back again (repeat)Underneath my skin
Lies a breathing heart
And like the world it trembles it trembles
