Think Again

BlackHawk

If you think I'll just be sittin' here waiting
That I'll be there the next time you come home
You better take a long hard look in the mirror
'Cause that image of yourself might be goneIf you wonder if there's some way you can fix it
Well, you better just start searching somewhere else
'Cause it's time for me to go out and start over
And do a little searching for myselfYou better think again
Think it over one more time
If you think you'll change my mind
You're dreaming
'Cause it's my heart that's on the lineYou better think again
You pushed your luck one too many times
If you think I'll be on the losing end
You better think againThere must be something you can say
That will change things
That I'll believe you like so many times before
That goodbye don't mean exactly what it sounds like
And that I'm not really walking out that doorYou better think again
Think it over one more time
If you think you'll change my mind
You're dreaming
'Cause it's my heart that's on the lineYou better think again
You pushed your luck one too many times
If you think I'll be on the losing end
You better think againYou better think again
Think it over one more time
If you think you'll change my mind
You're dreaming
'Cause it's my heart that's on the lineYou better think again
You pushed your luck one too many times
If you think I'll be on the losing end
You better think againIf you think I'll be on the losing end
You better think again
