Silent Way

Milo Greene

In a silent way we lie under heavy drapes
Just to mask away the light from the coming dayWhen, when, when we're older
When, when, when we're older
Can I still come overHold our naked sheets, our colored breathes we'll see
Your hair knots on top of me, oh how the heart it beatsWhen, when, when we're older
When, when, when we're older
Can I still come over
Can I still come over
Can I still come over
Can I still come overWhen we're older can I still come over
When we're older can I still come over
When, when, when we're older
When, when, when we're older
