My Guarantee

Charlie Wilson

I've been seein' you around
Something's got you down
I could never seem to figure out
Why a lady so pretty is always wearing a frown?I could turn that to a smile
Sit and talk with me a while
I can show you love, care, and concern
Give me a chanceI'll be your every answer
To all the hurting questions
Lessons that kept you guessing
If you would just come to meGive me all your attention
My love will make things better
And I bet you, if you let me
I'll make you happy, baby, please, yeahBaby, just let me love you
I promise I'll look out for you
I'll be the man to spoil you, girl
That's my guaranteeBaby, just let me show you
I'll put in work just for you
When it comes to you, it's whatever, girl
That's my guaranteeThrow on my gator shoes and slacks
You wear that dress with the open back
I'm gonna scoop you up
We'll go stepping, no questionsDippin' you slow, girl, you're a fox, I'll never go
And we could have this kind of fun
Every weekend if you want
All you gotta do, is let me show you what my kind of love can doI'll be your every answer
To all the hurting questions
Lessons that kept you guessing
If you would just come to meGive me all your attention
My love will make things better
And I bet you, if you let me
I'll make you happy, baby, please, yeahBaby, just let me love you
I promise I'll look out for you
I'll be the man to spoil you, girl
That's my guaranteeBaby, just let me show you
I'll put in work just for you
When it comes to you, it's whatever, girl
That's my guaranteeYou deserve better, you're a jewel
And I recognize the obstacles
That are qualified for loving youSo give me a chance

Can't you see
That the best thing for you is me, yeah?Baby, just let me love you
I promise I'll look out for you
I'll be the man to spoil you, girl
That's my guaranteeBaby, just let me show you
I'll put in work just for you
When it comes to you, it's whatever, girl
That's my guaranteeBaby, just let me love you
I promise I'll look out for you
I'll be the man to spoil you, girl
That's my guaranteeBaby, just let me show you
I'll put in work just for you
When it comes to you, it's whatever, girl
That's my guarantee
