

When I Go (feat. Val Young)

Outlawz

Yo, I don't want no open caskets, don't be crying to me
I don't want nobody standing there lying to me
Talking about if you was there you would've died for me
Took 5 for me, shoot blind for me, save the pipe dreams dog I'm gonna be aight and even if I die tomorrow
I'm gonna be aight, the only time I see my family
When a relative die when you gone, no pain, is it better to die?
Baby girl think I'm shy but I'm crying inside No tears in the jungle, I'm a lion inside
Nigga don't cry like I said on the song
God forbid I die early, please, accept that I'm gone
I lived mine, accomplished a lot in my time Soldier, I sold mils for Pac, still I rise, you sympathize
But I don't need it all but while we hearing breathing
With the love that y'all, we Outlawz Some day, one day we gotta go
When and where, whom and why
Nobody knows but when that day comes
I'm ready to roll 'cause they won't roll when I go Some day, one day we gotta go
When and where, whom and why
Nobody knows but when that day comes
I'm ready to roll 'cause they won't roll when I go Man, shit ain't right, yo, it just ain't adding up
My closest is gone, I'm mad as fuck
I'm more hurt than anything, not knowing what to do
Completely wrapped up in confusion, no clues Trusting other niggas thinkin' shit is all gravy
Mind unfocused 'cause I'm smoking daily
Rolling with big ass body guards, niggas
No guns, supposed to be protecting your ass He having fun, man fuck a vest, my nigga did with one on
Too much of a shock to my brain, I could not mourn
Do not shed a tear, close my eyes, said a prayer
Hoping the Lord let him in when he got there Still ride for Pac and Yak, Seike too
Still fucking the world, you know how Edi do
But I'm still crippled by the pain still feel like I'm to blame
Still wanna go insane every time I here your name man Some day, one day we gotta go
When and where, whom and why
Nobody knows but when that day comes
I'm ready to roll 'cause they won't roll when I go Some day, one day we gotta go
When and where, whom and why
Nobody knows but when that day comes
I'm ready to roll 'cause they won't roll when I go They say blood's thicker than water
And I say love is thicker than blood
Who's wrong and what's love with no honor and trust?
So I'd rather not bother, nothing much to discuss These cards dealt by God to my table

Ain't the best and pretty much unstable
And I don't know, my friend from my foe
So I move fast, think about shit slow
Rightfully so, I got my gun and walk through the slums
Bubbling like gum, wide open, I think I need more Motrin
These streets is hot, man, these bitches is smoking
And everybody for out for self out here
Man ain't no love left out here
Just blood in my eye, I can't even cry
I wonder why, so I don't even try
Some day, one day we gotta go
When and where, whom and why
Nobody knows but when that day comes
I'm ready to roll 'cause they won't roll when I go
Some day, one day we gotta go
When and where, whom and why
Nobody knows but when that day comes
I'm ready to roll 'cause they won't roll when I go
Some day, one day we gotta go
When and where, whom and why
Nobody knows but when that day comes
I'm ready to roll 'cause they won't roll when I go
Some day, one day we gotta go
When and where, whom and why
Nobody knows but when that day comes
I'm ready to roll 'cause they won't roll when I go
