

Eternally

Danny Django

If I could ask you things unspoken
 Give to you all my honesty
If I could show you any token
 Of the love welling up in me
I'd let you see what you mean to me
If you could hear me, I'd sing love songs
 As you drift gently into sleep
If you could see me, I'd blow you kisses
 Let them cross the ocean blue and deep
I wish you could see, what you mean to me
 Eternally
 When I had the chance
 To share with you my days
 All those precious tender moments
 Well, I let them slip away
 If I could touch you for a lifetime
 You would know that I would love you true
 Eternally, eternally, eternally
 If I had one wish that could be answered
 I'd undo all that I have done
 I know, I took it all for granted
 Thought I'd have you for all my days to come
 Here with me eternally, eternally
