Black Flag

Du Blonde

Show down baby, you'll fall in love again
You can blame me for wondering, for wondering when You'll replace me for another invent
In the morning black flag for the mourning
Hell no, baby, no need to hesitate
Tryina play me,
I'll throw your, I'll throw your way
Bullseye baby, I know your aim is true
Keep it burning, red flag
Here's it coming for youAll falls baby down to the riverside, and my pores baby, I'll burn my, I'll burn my pride
Can you feel me?
Oh, you should run alike I
In the morning, black flag for the morningWhy'd you do this?
I thought that you know better,
We've been through this
You were (???) baby!Well said baby, now tell me something new
You slay me with what you're saying, what you do
Don't try me, 'cause I'm not in the mood (please don't try)
In the morning, white flag, I surrender to you
Packed up baby, I got a ticket booked
But got a lot honey, I know you're, I know you're hooked on hurt
Baby, you like to keep it blue
In the morning black flag, I'll be mourning for you
