The Conflagration

Stone Sour

Every now and then
A lifetime needs a second chance
To find another one like you.
Don't forget your better reason,
Or your silly risks will bring you down.
Oh, several years of bitter Mondays
Take a heavy toll then you realise it's you
Until you make this easy harder
No one else will care if you're around.
If you live your life with no tomorrows
Every day is just a road to sorrow
You should know
What they want, they get it
If it's you, they won't let you forget it.
So much for channeled lions gathering the sheep
All I wanted was something safe.
Show me your ungrateful tolerance
I'll point out the mirror, point to you.
Oh, this is where forever gets us

Immoral wishes and oblivion
I can't stay.
I don't need the conflagration
I don't need the hate
And I don't need you.
But if you live your life with no tomorrows
Every day is just a road to sorrow
And you should know
What they want, they get it.
If it's you, they won't let you forget it.
So if you live a life with no tomorrows
Every day is just a road to sorrow
You should know
What they want, they get it.
And if it's you, they won't let you forget it.
Oh,
I'm on my own
I'm on my own.
