Pat McGee Band

She knows your side, the side she knows it well
She's needing some time, it seems she's gone and fell
All over you, again it's not the same.
The way to look on through, she'll be playing you game.Chorus
Dododo...and she's wishing.
And she's crying now
Now she's hoping wellIt seems that she knows where she's coming from Even still you go, you think it's far from done
She's having you now, you go running back
Same old story how she's down and out...
She's perfecting her craft.
