

The First Time

Matt Kivel

on the moonless night in a burned up building you heavy cries were floating seems all your life had needed mending so you cut the ties to the old things

oh whoa whoa
Oh golden light of a daydream dawning
Now held so tight by the story
Of a carriage ride in a long lost century
Through a countryside in the morning

Oh whoa whoa
I'll take you out of here tonight
I'll take you out of here tonight
I'll take you out of here
A man in white his gold watch turning
Was pressed for time you hurried
To drink his wine and follow blindly
But in your mind was folly

Oh whoa whoa
I'll take you out of here tonight
I'll take you out of here tonight
I'll take you out of here

Ooh ooh
Ooh ooh
Ooh ooh
Ooh ooh

Your breath inside the window fogging
On the panes you write a warning
To the promised bride, her spotted ponies
And velvet shrine of endings

Oh whoa whoa
I'll take you out of here tonight
I'll take you out of here tonight
You need no longer suffer fright
I'll take you out of here tonight
I'll take you out of here tonight
