Cryin Shame

Smoke or Fire

where are my friends tonight who's looking out for me i don't mind drinking by myself i don't wanna be alone againwhere are my friends tonight
but i don't wanna be alone againyou said you got here at 2pm here to chase last call again knew that i'd see your face some things never change tell me you'd never live to see thirty you were right my friendcause when the alcohol is emptied from the bottles and the bar stools all are stacked on top of the tables when the pool balls all are sunk into the pockets i walk along the sidewalks back home pass out till sunday...where are my friends tonight
who's looking out for me
i don't wanna be alone again
