Little Thoughts

Bloc Party.

Been thinking little thoughts
Keep on walking trying to stand up
Pay attention to the details
We go slowly, slowly downBeen thinking little thoughts
Keep on walking trying to stand up
Pay attention to the details
We go slowly, downI'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask me
I'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask meI'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask me
I'll go back if you ask
I'll go back, back-back-back-backwardsThis world ain't just m-m-m-made of facts
Every half hour is a countdown
If it's 'cause of my age then you're a coward
If it's 'cause of my age then you're a coward
If it's 'cause of my age then you're a coward
I haven't got the guts to stand aloneI'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask me
I'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask meI'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask me
I'll go back if you ask
I'll go back, back-back-back-backwardsI'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask me
I'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask meI'll go back if you ask
I'll go back if you ask me
I'll go back if you ask
I'll go back, back-back-back-backwards
