

With You

Darling Parade

Im not the girl
you have pinned on the wall
I've got battle scars
with a broken heart
and she's got it all I cant pretend to be what you need Feel so worthless
cause Im not perfect
If you cut me I bleed And i don't know how loves supposed to go With you I know
theres no letting go
When you tell me Im never alone
and I know in my heart
that Im finally home
With you Im finally home You said it yourself i've got nothing to prove Seems impossible
so unthinkable
Im falling for you Wasting my time
standing at the back of the line
All my words are stuck
I cant get enough Im falling for you And I don't know how loves supposed to go
With you
I know theres no letting go
When you tell me Im never alone
and i know in my heart
that Im finally home
With you Im finally home I was never the best and hold my breath
I was stuck on the sidelines with no regrets
But you saw me differently right from the start And theres no competition

im all that you want With you I know
theres no letting go
When you tell me Im never alone
and I know in my heart
the Im finally home With you Im finally home Im not the girl you've pinned on the wall
I've got battle scars
