

Call Up

The Alan Parsons Project

No one ever lived a thousand years
Not like things we do or say
Some of those who really changed this world
We would welcome back today
They could really light the way

So call up Otis

Call up Marvin

Call for Buddy

Bring them on

Call for Ludwig

And for Johann

We need Lennon

We mean John

Words live longer than a thousand years
Listen hard to what they say
Single voices that would change this world
We would welcome back today
They would really light the way

So call up Jimi

Let's have Stevie

Look for Miles

To take the floor

Call for Billie

Yell for Ella

Call up Elvis

We'll need more

So call up Einstein

Bring back Darwin

Call for Newton

And Luther King

We need Gandhi

Call Da Vinci

Call for Jesus

And ask Him in

If we live another thousand years
Who could help along the way?
Some of those who came and changed this world
We would welcome back today
They would really light the way

So call up Garbo
Let's have Mansfield
Maybe Monroe
No, she's for sure
Call Sinatra
Come on Crosby
Is that Bogie
At the door?
Bring on Bergman
How about Dietrich?
Let's have James Dean
Leave the car
Call Picasso
We need Monet
Let's have Rembrandt
And Renoir
Call up Groucho
Come on Gable
Bring on Hitchcock
And let's get wilde
Come on Gershwin
Let's call Porter
Maybe Duke
Could show some style
Call up Shakespeare
Bring on Byron
We need Shelley
And maybe Keats
Come on Wordsworth
Bring on Browning
Robert Burns

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>