

Won't Let You Fall

Fergie

I'll never let you go, so never let me go
I will be your journey and you will be my road
Down the stormy path love will never come to pass
It will be our anchor although the winds may blow
And through the depths of high and low wherever you will go
I'll follow to the end, back again, you know, oh
Won't let you fall, fall out of love
'Cause together we'll be holding on 'cause all we have is us
Won't let you go, go away again
Because life don't mean nothing at all if I don't have your love
I will dry your tears, take away your fears
Let me be your shelter, your heart is safe in here
So beautiful and pure, nothing I would not endure
Oh, love has got me blinded, I can see it all so clear
And through the depths of high and low wherever you will go
I'll follow to the end and back again, you know, oh
Won't let you fall, fall out of love
'Cause together we'll be holding on 'cause all we have is us
Won't let you go, go away again
Because life don't mean nothing at all if I don't have your love
I'm down for you for whatever, anything you're going through
What's mine is yours, every little thing
I got you even when the winds of change
Come smashing down and crashing on you
Won't let you fall, fall out of love
'Cause together we'll be holding on 'cause all we have is us
Won't let you go, go away again
Because life don't mean nothing at all if I don't have your love
I don't have your love
If I don't have your love, no, no, no
Never let it go, let it go
Let you fall, let you fall, fall out of love
