Nothing To Lose

Lullacry

You asked me why
I kept telling lies
I broke the rules
But I don't care 'cause I got nothing
You are the sun
I am the flame
I feel no shame
'Cause I got nothing
I got nothing to loseIt's the hardest thing to do
To see it coming over you
Never thought I could break the rules
Now I got nothing to loseJust move ahead
And don't look back
I won't be there
And I don't care 'cause I got nothing
You are the sun
I am the flame
And I got nothing
I got nothing to lose
