

The Story

Limp Bizkit

Just live and let die
Check, check, check, come on
If you could take a minute of your life
A certain minute when you feel the lightning strike
Danger is the only level of that moment
But it's your moment and you know you'll fucking own it
Glorified in the grace by your victory
When your done, you escape without memory
Blindfolded through this life as we learn
And consequences when the wrong pages turn
It's an E! True Hollywood story
Take a man down with his own glory
Now guess who's next
At some point we come down from the highs
It's no deal we move on with our lives
And some of us let the last color cries
Do the math, you can laugh when I die
If life is just a fantasy, then could you?
Live this fantasy life for something would you
Just remember that the doors are not closable
And the mother fucking heroes are disposable
It's an E! True Hollywood story
Take a man down with his own glory
Now guess, who's next
It's an E! True Hollywood story
Take a man down with his own glory
Now guess, who's next?
Just live and let die
Just live an let
Just live and let
(Just live and let die)
Just live and let die
Just live an let
Just live and let
So what about the hardcore that ain't hard anymore?
Or the shit talkers who ain't shit anymore?
Or the old fighters that can't fight anymore?
Or the white kid's who ain't white any more?
Or the actors that don't act anymore?
Or the rappers that don't rap anymore?
Or the hipsters that don't hip anymore?
Or the limpsters that don't limp anymore?
Just live and let die
Just live an let
Just live and let
(Just live and let die)
Just live and let die
Just live an let
Just live and let
(Just live and let die)
But no
It's impossible
Just to live your live your life

And let us die Oh mother fuck that
You wanna talk about some shit
Let's talk about The hardcore that ain't hard anymore
Or the shit talkers who ain't shit anymore?
Or the old fighters that can't fight anymore?
Or the white kid's who ain't white any more? Or the actors that can't anymore?
Or the rappers that can't rap anymore?
Or the hipsters that can't hip anymore?
Or the limpsters that can't limp anymore? It's an E! True Hollywood story
Take a man down with his own glory
Now guess, who's next? It's an E! True Hollywood story
Take a man down with his own glory
Now guess, who's next?
