

Beach House

HOAX

So now we're going to your bedroom
Don't you think we're moving too soon
I love to hear you when you complain
About your best friend how she's so lame
And as you're talking I start thinking
All the details start to sink in
I don't care about that right now
Let's spend this summer in this beach house Cause I will try
To play my part
My lines memorized in my heart I keep losing to a moment
Where I'm with you I just can't focus
I love to hear your crazy theories
About conspiracies on TV
I know the truth and it's so simple
But blame it all on stupid impulse
And I keep living out of my head
Just forgive me for my silence
Cause I will try
To play my part
My lines memorized in my heart
