Way Away

Toad The Wet Sprocket

Line of people to pass you by Posing sympathy with their whitewash eyes
With the ladies feigning their mourning cries
And the men shaking hands
Weigh away
Way away
As all the pictures in your mind
As you're passed the thousandth time
Thousandth photograph
Listen to sympathetic lies
As their reasons change with their mourning 'guise
With the gentlemen feigning sorrowed sighs
And drinking champagne
Weigh away
Way away
As all the people pass and pose
You hold back the tears
And hold onto memories
Small talk hangs like a dirty cloud
Saying nothing real but deafening loud
An urge to run away from the crowd
And mourn all alone
Make a promise to no one
Wondering if you been worthwhile
Turn away from the chatter
And the hungry smiles
