Maybe Today

Dee Dee Bridgewater

I try hard, not to think of You
But my mind won't behave
Sorting through old conversations
To find the piece of love I can save
Your words still ring in my head
Overtones of the things you said
But maybe today
I'll see the reasons why our love had to die
I've been looking for an answer to satify me
Feel so lost, feel so empty
I don't how to begin
The start of my life fall over again
How can my body forget
The touch of you love
You're still with me yet
But maybe today
I'll see the reasons why our love had to die
I've been searching for the answers to satify me, satisfy
Me
Maybe today
I'll see, I'll see the reasons why our love had to die
I've been looking for an answer to satify me
